

Run, run, run

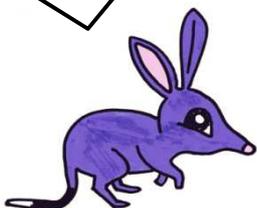

Penny Platypus says, "Frill-necked lizard is only small but she can run away from a dingo or fox who would like her for lunch. She spreads out her frill to give them a fright and then runs on two legs to the nearest tree and safety."

God's book, the Bible says, "Run to God for safety."

Hebrews 6:18

Colour in this Frill-necked lizard.

I can say, "God, my Heavenly Father, you will always keep me safe. Help me to always run to you when I'm scared or in trouble."
